Love, Hope, Strength – Mike Peters visit

Dear parents and carers,

You might remember that during December's Christmas concerts, we mentioned that the money from the ticket sales would be going towards the Love, Hope, Strength charity. The charity was founded by Mike Peters from the rock group The Alarm to raise funds towards the purchase of medical equipment, to raise awareness and to support leukaemia and cancer sufferers. Mike Peters is a two-times cancer survivor himself.

Part of the charity's work is to encourage as many people as possible to register to be on the International Bone Marrow Register. By being on the register, it increases the chance that sufferers have of survival.

This coming Friday, January 17th, Mike Peters will be visiting Ysgol Plas Coch to receive a cheque from the proceeds of the Christmas concert ticket sales. He will also be singing some of his best known songs.

Parents and carers can come to watch Mike Peters at Plas Coch, and, if you wish, to register to get on to the above mentioned list. Mike, along with representatives from the charity will talk about their work and the process of registering. There is further information through the link below as well:

<https://www.dkms.org.uk/en/register-now>

The singing and the registering session will begin after school at 3:45pm, in the Plas Coch school hall, and will be finished by 4:30pm. Ysgol Bro Alun parents, carers and pupils are welcome to attend and support; feel free to bring friends and families along with you.

There is further information on the charity and the group at:

www.lovehopestrength.co.uk and <http://thealarm.com> and there are a number of videos of the group singing on You Tube.

With thanks,

Osian Jones
