'Sgwennu Stori'

Competition 2024

Please see below a message from BBC Radio Wales regarding their competition 'Sgwennu Stori'. You are welcome to complete this task as additional/ optional homework, if you wish:

Aled Hughes' radio show, BBC Radio Wales, is holding their 'Sgwennu Stori' competition once again in 2024 for primary school pupils across Wales.

We are calling on pupils to write a short story, no more than 500 words, on the topic 'Hud a Lledrith/ Magic'.

The applications will be judged on the basis of the following criteria:

Originality, Plot, Characters, Language, Enjoyment.

The closing date is June 7th 2024. Aled will announce the winner on July 4th 2024, where the winner will receive a gift from the Books Council of Wales, as well as a digital cover designed for their story.

If you would like to compete, please send your short stories to HughesS610@hwbcymru.net by Monday June 3rd 2024.

At the top of each story, please clearly note the pupils stage/ fake name and the name of the school.
